

Thank God for your loved one's faith and his/her love for others.

(Colossians 1: 3-4)

Lord, thank you that _____ loves you and desires to live for you. Help him/her to share the gospel with others and spread the message of your saving love.
Please allow him/her to believe in your Word as truth and to share the message of your love to others.

Pray that they would understand God's will for them.

(Colossians 1:9)

I pray that you would fill up _____ with the knowledge of your will and plan for his/her life. Give _____ the spiritual understanding to know how to serve you best. Help _____ to know what you want him/her to do. Thank you that your Holy Spirit gives us wisdom and understanding.

Pray that their life would reflect God's image.

(Colossians 1:10)

Lord, I pray you would bless the work of _____ 's hands. May he/she grow in the knowledge of your Word and truth. I pray that _____ 's actions would reflect his/her faith.

Ask the Lord that the fruit of the spirit would be evident in their lives.

(Colossians 1:10)

Father, I pray that _____ would be fruitful in every good work. Help _____ to show your love by helping others.

Pray that they would always seek to grow closer to God.

(Colossians 1:10)

Lord, help _____ to increase in the knowledge of you through prayer and reading your Word.

Pray for God to give them strength to endure.

Father give _____ the strength to endure whatever difficulty he/she is facing.

Ask the Lord to fill them with his joy and patience.

(Colossians 1:11)

Lord, it's not easy to face difficulty. Father fill _____ with your patience and the joy.

Pray for them to have a thankful heart.

(Colossians 1:12-14)

Lord thank you that through your Son we are qualified to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. You have rescued us from darkness and brought us into Your kingdom where we have redemption and the forgiveness of our sins. I pray that _____ would understand the depth of your love for him/her and that he/she would give joyful thanks to You for the forgiveness of his/her sins.
